

🌟 48th Foundation Day of Lok Samiti Celebrated in Aurangabad 🌟

30 June 2025, Aurangabad (Bihar): The 48th Foundation Day of Lok Samiti, a non-political people's organization founded by Loknayak Jayaprakash Narayan, was celebrated at Prithviraj Chauhan Smriti Bhavan.

National President Shri Girija Satish hoisted the LS flag and led the national anthem with all participants. In his keynote address, he condemned the recent terrorist attack in Pahalgam and criticized global leadership for prioritizing power over people's welfare. He emphasized the need to rise above narrow nationalism and called for gender equality, prohibition of alcohol, eradication of communalism, and reforms in election processes.

Shri Satish also honored key contributors including Shri Vinod Sharma, Shri Ajay Kumar Srivastava, Shri Wazir Ahmed, and Shri Sajjan Kumar for their service to the organization.

Six key resolutions on global peace, grassroots development, farmer markets, de-addiction, superstition elimination, and electoral reforms were unanimously passed, presented by National Convenor Shri Kaushal Ganesh Azad. Around 200 delegates from across India participated in the event.

🌟 50 Years Since the Emergency

25 June 2025, Hazaribagh: On the 50th anniversary of the Emergency imposed on 25 June 1975, a press conference was organised by Hazaribagh Zila Lok Samiti at NBJK-run Rojgar Training Centre, Sardar Chowk, Hazaribagh (Jharkhand).

Key speakers, including Mr. Girija Satish (National Lok Samiti President), retd. Prof. K. P. Sharma, senior advocate Mr. Swaroopchand Jain, former MLA Mr. Gautam Sagar Rana and others, reflected on the dark chapter in Indian democracy and called for continued public vigilance.

Speakers emphasized Gandhian ideals, JP's Total Revolution, and the need to educate citizens on democratic values.

🌱 NBJK's New Initiative – Sunehri Jute Bag Production Centre 🌱

20 June 2025, Chhotabanki: Nav Bharat Jagriti Kendra (NBJK), with the support of Cummins India Foundation (CIF), has launched the "Sunehri Jute Bag Production Centre" in Chhotabanki village (East Singhbhum, Jharkhand) – a powerful step towards women's self-employment and empowerment!

👛 30+ eco-friendly jute products

👩 15 trained women entrepreneurs

💰 Daily earnings: ₹200–₹400

🏠 Community-supported workspace

📄 MSME registration & digital transactions

After training by the National Jute Board, local women formed a self-help group and turned their aspiration into action. The initiative is not just transforming a village into a model of sustainability, but also promoting eco-conscious rural enterprise.

🌟 A shining example of women-led, environment-friendly entrepreneurship!
