Remembering Loknayak Jayaprakash Narayan on His 124th Birth Anniversary

Hazaribagh, 11 October 2026: Loknayak Jayaprakash Narayan was remembered in Hazaribagh with deep respect by veterans of the 1974–77 JP Movement on his 124th birth anniversary.

The observance began with floral tributes at his life-size statue inside Loknayak Jayaprakash Narayan Central Jail, followed by a visit to the JP Memorial near Gandhi Smarak Campus, Kumhartoli, where a discussion was held on his ideals, democratic values and contribution to nation-building.

NBJK President Mr. Girija Satish shared his memories of working with JP in Musahari block of Muzaffarpur district, recalling his humility, grassroots connection and sensitivity towards ordinary people. Speakers also highlighted JP's commitment to public service and his refusal to be tempted by political power.

The programme concluded with a decision to convene a meeting of JP's followers on 25 October at NBJK's Coordination Office, Amrit Nagar, to plan future activities at the JP Memorial.

Loknayak JP's ideals of democracy, integrity and social transformation continue to inspire generations.
